1 Mcmillan Pl, Northam

3 LOTS 2 TITLES

Cute single story stone cottage on 5 acres on 2 titles, this home has 2 bedrooms with a quaint little lounge room and fire place. There is a large shed to the property and extra sheds further to the back of the property.

This home has a lot of history the home was built by the pensioner guard John Mcmillan in 1876. The walls are constructed of local cured brick, mud mortar and sand and lime render. The roof is iron lined with weatherboard, and the ceiling is of hand sawn timber. A kitchen and bedroom lean to have been added to the rear, and has been extended and an activity room with bathroom has been constructed adjacent. The location of this property gives you peace and quiet and your own piece of history.
