Yes, this 1900's brick and iron home has had a complete makeover.....

The moment you step inside towering high ceiling, wide passage large rooms and new renovations this 1900's home is now looking like younger than ever.

There are all new floor coverings from the carpets to all rooms floating boards to the passage and kitchen as well as new charcoal tiles in the wet areas.

The first room off the passage is a massive lounge room which still retains the original ornate fireplace with -2nd ornate fireplace to one of the bedrooms).

What a bonus.

Further down the passage are 2 more spacious bedrooms - one of the rooms
